

April 12. 1642.

At the Committee of Lords and Commons, for advance of Money, and other necessities for the ARMY.

It is Ordered that all such persons as already are assessed, or hereafter shall be assessed upon, or by vertue of the Ordinance of both Houses of Parliament, of the 29. of Novem^r last, do immediately from and after the payment of the summes at which they are assessed (unto the Treasurers at Guild-Hall) repaire unto Haberdashers Hall, in the afternoones, and there produce and shew their acquittances under one of the said Treasurers hands, to the Clarke of this Committee, who is entrusted to keepe the said account, and shall register the same acquittance, which done, some one or more of the said Treasurers, will immediately Signe, Finish and Deliver, the said acquittances to the parties who have so paid the Money. And it is likewise ordered that this be Printed and published,

MARTIN DALLISON,
Clarke to the said Committee.